BOLD ROBBERIES.

THREE BURGLARS AT ELM GROVE

in his Boom-He Chases Them Out, and Two of the Condreys are Arrested. Wheeling Man Attacked,

At an early hour yesterday morning Dr W. A. Cracraft, who lives out at Elm Grove, was wakened by a noise in his room, and sitting up, he saw three rough looking men in his room. One of them was engaged in going through the pocket of his pantaloons and another in rausack ing a drawer in a bureau. His movement ance by the Doctor. In the dim light he ecognized in the thieves three men whom he had passed on the road in the evening, and who had eyed him so closely ecure anything of value in the house.

Secure anything of value in the house.

Yesterday Dr. Cracraft called on Prosecuting Attorney Jordan, and gave him a very, good description of the burglars. From this description the Prosecutor and the police at once made up their minds that "Plugger" Condrey and "Whiskey Snoot" Condrey, two kinsmen of the notorious crook, "Gurly Jack". Condrey, were two of the thieves, and accordingly warrants were issued for them by Squire Davis, and last evening Officers Shorts and West arrested the two men and lodged.

Davis, and last evening Officers Shorts and West arrested the two men and lodged them in the county jail to await identification by Dr. Gracraft.

It is thought that the other member of the trio is known, and a warrant was issued for a third man, although up to a late hour last night he had not been found. One rumor was that this man lived at Elm Grove, but another report is that he is a strange professional who was that he is a strange professional who was seen in company with "Plugger" Condrey repeatedly on Wednesday.

A WHEELING MAN HELD UP For $130 by Highwaymen west of St. Clairs

Wednesday night Mr. W. S. Pierpoint, a traveling salesman in the employ of Greer & Laing, of this city, was driving along the National road about two miles west of St. Clairsville, at about ten o'clock, of them caught his horse and held him. the other put his revolver to Mr. Pier-point's head and demanded his money. Mr. Pierpoint happened to have on his person $130. Thinking discretion the bet-person $130. Thinking discretion the better part of valor, he rather promptly gave this up to the thieves. As the two men turned, after releasing his horse, however, Mr. Pierpoint struck one of them a stinging blow across the face with his whip and then put the horse to his best speed. The robbers fired one shot, which pierced Mr. Pierpoint's hat. He did not wait to see if they were going to keep up

Accused of False Preteuses Yesterday Squire W. H. Davis issued warrants for J. H. Vancleaf and J. S. Cook, on the eath of Mr. John A. Lesh, Cook, on the cath of Mr. John A. Lesh, the jeweler, who accuses them of obtaining goods of value from him under false pretenses. The story is that Vancleaf purchased a gold watch last Saturday, promising to pay for it on Monday, when be expected to come into receipt of $1,100. Cook later also purchased a watch, also gold, saying that he was to receive $75 from Vancleaf when Vancleaf got his $1,100. Neither party is in the city at present.

Where the coupons are and who cut them off is the subject of much speculation. The murdered woman never cut them off, but always took the bonds to the bank and had them cut off there. The bonds were so well concealed in the top of a dressing case, and the coupons were so neatly clipped that it looks highly improbable as the work of a burglar. Baker, when asked in jail about the bonds before they had been lound, said he had never seen them, and found, said he had never seen th

Yesterday the Baltimore & Ohio Railad Company ran its first excursion train to Cape May and Atlantic City. Excursions o these points over this road having been nade possible by its Philadelphia extension. The tickets for the round trip were good going on any of yesterday's trains, and are good returning on any train within ten day? with the privilege of stopping off at any point. These were sold at the low rate of $10. For some reason the company did not anticipate much of a crowd from Wheeling, but in this they were greatly disappointed; in fact, judging from the reports from a number of stations, the excursion turned out to be unprecedentedly popular and another one in the near future is not improbable.

A special excursion train was announced to leave here at 4:30 A. M. That hour found nearly 150 people at the depot clausoring for the one hundred tickets that the company had deemed sufficient to meet the demand here. An effort was made to secure some tickets from Bellaire good going on any of yesterday's trains,

Sometimes the Wheeling people thought his decisions were not right, but they could not complain because they were close and his judgement was taken in preference to the partial crowd. Zanesville was showed all the courtesy here that a strange audience could bestow, and this pleading of the baby act is becoming very sickening. Was the umpire responsible for five two base hits and one single in one inning? Was the umpire responsible for five two base hits and one single in one inning? Was the umpire responsible for the earned runs and Nicholson's home run in the afternoon game? But enough of this. It is not the Zanesville players who are talking this way, but the apologist journalists, who cannot tell when base ball is being played. The following will bear the INTELIGENCER out in its judgement:

Zanesville cays Bauer swindled them out of the two games at Wheeling Monthe court should have put a bell on the prisoner when he was turned out; then if he got lost or strayed away he could be found. He was at Scott Richards', in this Zanesvine mays bauer swingred them out of the two games at Wheeling Monday. This continual kicking on umpires by Zanesville is getting monotonous. It is habyish to say the least.—Columbus State Journal,

State Journal.

The Zaneaville Signal takes Umpire Baner to task and holds him responsible for the two defeats austained by Zaneaville at the hands of Wheeling. The Signal is generally a fair paper on matters pertaining to beze ball, but in the present cass we are afraid it has been misinformed. While several of Baner's declations were questionable, they had no bear ions were questionable, they had no bearing on the general result, and we are of the opinion, after having witnessed the games, that the Zaneoville team was out played. Give the devil his due, Mr. Signal.—Steubenville Herald.

Zinesville sings her usual song of "umpire" "sobbed" in speaking of her double defeat on the 4th. This is no more than was expected and will give Secretary Moore a chance to spoil several reams of paper in his accustomed "protest" act.—Sandusky Register.

BLUE SKY.

What gives to the sky its arched appearance? The ancient Greeks thought it a solid substance, and that the sun, moon and stars were set into it like diamonds, and that the upper surface was laid in gold-the pavement of the gods. In Pagan countries somewhat similar notions still prevall. They think the sun. moon and stars are holes in the sky, through which the brightness and glory of the heavenly world comes streaming through, The sky is no more than the air we breathe. The blue is but the color of the great ocean of air in which we live and move. rompt the statement that there was talk Our childish fancy located it thousands of miles above, when the truth is, it is only three or four miles away. Travelers in balloons and up the high mountains see no more of the blue sky above them, only the blackness of empty space. The advantages of the "STAR" are not above you. They are all about you, and we would like to have them on you. Come in and let us sell you one of our handsome suits. Bring in the boy and let us rig him out, our stock is yet in fair shape; broken lots will be sold at astonishingly low prices to close.
